Variance Procedures

Variance applications are heard and decided at a regularly-scheduled public hearing by the five-member City of Atlanta Board of Zoning Adjustment ("BZA"). The Office of Planning serves as staff to the BZA. Approximately one week after each closing date, a planner is assigned to review your application. All inquires regarding your application should be directed to this office at (404) 330-6145. The rules of the BZA prevent BZA members from discussing the merits of any case except during the public hearing for that case.

Schedule. There are two closing dates and two public hearings per month. The schedule allows time for neighborhood and NPU meetings to occur throughout the City prior to each public hearing. The schedule of closing and public hearing dates is attached (Page 9).

Neighborhood and NPU Recommendations. The City is divided into 24 Neighborhood Planning Units (NPUs), each of which has a volunteer citizen advisory committee that makes a recommendation to the BZA on variances. When you file your application, you will be notified of the NPU contact person and that you must schedule a meeting with that NPU in order to explain what you wish to do. You may be requested to attend additional neighborhood meetings; inquire about the time and place of those meetings. The applicant is expected to contact the NPU as soon as possible after the application is filed. The Office of Planning will send a copy of your application to the appropriate NPU during the week after the closing date for your application.

Public Notice. When you file your application, it will be scheduled for a public hearing. The Office of Planning will initiate posting of public notice ("an advertisement", "a legal ad") for this public hearing so that the public is informed at least 15 days before the date of the public hearing:

- by sending written notice of your application to all property owners whose property is within 300 feet of the subject property, and
- by causing public notice to be placed in the newspaper.

You are responsible for obtaining a public notice sign when you file your application with the Office of Planning, and for posting it in a visible location on your property, at least 15 days prior to your public hearing. Failure to properly post the sign will make it necessary for the BZA to defer your case to another public hearing. The BZA may defer the case to a hearing that has been scheduled 30 or more days after the original hearing.

Refunds on Withdrawn Cases. Requests for withdrawal received 18 days prior to the public hearing will enable a refund of the application fee.

Staff Recommendation. Office of Planning staff reviews and makes written recommendations to the BZA on each variance application. You may contact your assigned planner at (404) 330-6145 on the day of the public hearing if you wish to know staff's recommendation.

V-11-082

APPLICATION for VARIANCE for 1700 N. PELHAM RD. ATLANTA, GA 30324

Criteria for Variance

Applicant seeks a variance for two shed structures. One shed encroaches on the side yard set-back (built 2.1 feet from the setback) and the other encroaches on the rear-yard setback (built 3.3 feet from the setback).

Reason (1)

There are extraordinary and exceptional conditions pertaining to the particular piece of property in question because of its size, shape or topography:

1. The lot is zoned R-4 and should have a width of 70 feet, but the lot has a width of only 60 feet, making it more necessary to encroach on the side-yard setback.
2. The lot and the rear neighbor's lot have adjoining backyards, so the shed that encroaches on the rear-yard setback remains remote from the rear neighbor's home.
3. The lot descends from the front to a ditch in the backyard, and then it ascends steeply toward the rear property line. The land is not reasonably accessible without steps, and without landscaping it is not usable or enticing.

Reason (4)

Relief, if granted, would not cause substantial detriment to the public good or impair the purpose and intent of the zoning ordinance of the City of Atlanta:

THERE ARE NO OBJECTIONS TO THE IMPROVEMENTS BY ANY ADJOINING NEIGHBOR. (See Attachment)

1. The improvements protect against blight and depreciation by landscaping land that previously was overgrown and not reasonably accessible, making the lot more valuable, especially considering the expensive plant and construction material used. In fact, the improvements have inspired other neighbors to improve their own back yards.
2. The improvements sustain stability of the neighborhood by improving the land value and fostering community by creating easier access to neighbors. The fence around the back yard has gates that contemplate and allow for more interaction with neighbors.
3. The improvements promote desirable living conditions by creating, as one adjoining neighbor wrote, something that "is aesthetically pleasing, environmentally friendly and fun!" The shed structures are built without concrete slabs, so the land under them remains porous. Also, the backyard slope will be replanted with fruit-bearing plants and trees, plus some ornamentals, using varieties that can sustain themselves in Atlanta's climate.

I've gotten word from the city's Department of Watershed Management that they would like me to permit our backyard project, so I intend to go through that process. Something that I'm sure would be helpful along the way would be to tell the city that the neighbors most impacted by the project do not object. Would you mind responding to this email, indicating that you don't object? The project is almost complete (plantings going in over the next few days), so you have the benefit of knowing exactly what the "plan" looks like. Of course, if you have any questions or concerns, I'd be happy to talk with you about them. You guys have been very generous about the project, and I apologize for needing to reach out to you like this.
